

South Carolina Historical Marker Program

Established 1936

South Carolina
State Historic Preservation
Office

Before 1930

Since 1930

Historical Commission of South Carolina
1936-1954

in cooperation with

Works Progress Administration (WPA) Marker Survey
1936-1942

South Carolina Department of Archives and History
1954-Present

Sewah Studios, Marietta, Ohio

Manufacturer of South Carolina Historical Markers
Since 1954

Marker Style, 1936-1954

Marker Style, 1954-1990

Marker Style, 1990-Present

Lafayette

Erected by Georgetown County, 1940

Marquis de Lafayette
(1757-1834)

St. Paul's Episcopal
Churchyard

Pendleton,
Anderson County

Erected by the United Daughters of the Confederacy, 1968

General Barnard E. Bee
(1824-1861)

General Thomas J.
"Stonewall" Jackson
(1824-1863)

Erected 2004

15th N.Y. Infantry, The "Harlem Hell Fighters," at the Site of Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg

Darlington Raceway
Darlington County

Erected 1997

The First Southern 500,
1950

Mt. Zion Rosenwald School
Mars Bluff, Florence County

Listed in the National Register of Historic Places 2001

South Carolina
Historical Marker
Erected 2004

Campbell's Covered Bridge

Gowensville vicinity
Greenville County

Spann Methodist Church and Cemetery
Ward, Saluda County

Founded 1805

Present Church
Built 1873

Listed in the National Register of Historic Places 2003

South Carolina Historical Marker
Erected 2005

Campbell's Covered Bridge
Erected 2002

Spann Methodist Church and Cemetery

Captain Clinton Ward
(1828-1905)

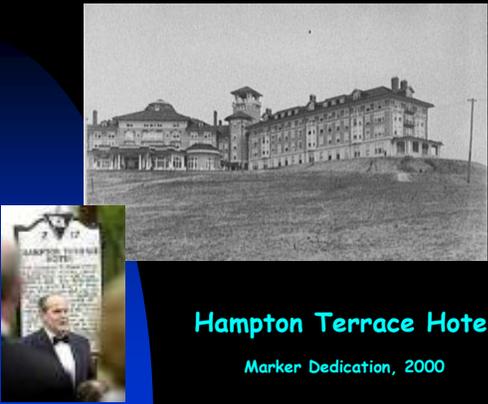

Founder of Ward's Depot
(Later renamed Clintonward, then Wards, and finally Ward)

Lobby

Hampton Terrace Hotel
North Augusta, Aiken County
1903-1916

Entrance and Grounds

Hampton Terrace Hotel
Marker Dedication, 2000

County Histories City Histories Pictorial Histories

Institutional Histories Family Papers Newspapers

Published and Unpublished Sources

Savannah River Plant
Aiken County
2004

Mann-Simons Cottage
Columbia
2004

Myrtle Beach
Colored School
Horry County
2007

Captain Samuel Earle
Oconee County
2006

Marker Dedications