1. Welcome to New SHPO Staff Member

The SHPO welcomes Ehren Foley as our new National Register Historian and Historical Marker Coordinator. He received his Ph.D. and M.A. in History from the University of South Carolina, and his B.A. from the University of Virginia in History and Government. He has taught US history and SC history at the University of South Carolina and US history at Winthrop University. He also served as editorial assistant for the History and Women, Culture and Faith: Selected Writings of Elizabeth Fox-Genovese, 5 vols., ed. David Moltke-Hansen (Columbia: USC Press, 2011-12), and as research associate for the William Gilmore Simms Initiatives at USC. Ehren can be reached at 803-896-6182, or efoley@scdah.state.sc.us.

2. Marine Corps Air Station Beaufort Receives Cultural Resources Management Award

Congratulations to our colleagues at the Marine Corps Air Station Cultural Resources Program for receiving the 2013 Secretary of Defense Cultural Resources Management Installation Award. The Cultural Resources Management awards recognize efforts to promote cultural resources stewardship in the Department of Defense by highlighting outstanding examples. To read more about the Marine Corps Air Station Beaufort and their Cultural Resources Program see http://www.denix.osd.mil/awards/upload/2013-SECDEF-Env-Awards\_CRM-Fact-Sheet\_Press-Pkg\_20130418-pdf.pdf.
