Dear Dr. Emerson, State Historic Preservation Officer,

The Waccamaw Indian People request that undertakings that require compliance with Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act (36 CFR 800.2[c][5]) located within Horry, Georgetown, Marion, Florence, and Dillon Counties, South Carolina, include the Waccamaw Indian People as a consulting party as part of the compliance process. The Waccamaw Indian People are recognized by the state of South Carolina as an Indian Tribe, pursuant to South Carolina Code of Laws Section 1-31-40(A)(10) and South Carolina Code of Regulations Chapter 139. According to these South Carolina regulations, state recognized tribes may serve as consulting parties under Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act (36 CFR 800.2[c][5]). We would like to exercise our right to consultation under this legislation.

Official correspondence may be sent to:
